

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry movie just before the election is clear electioneering. Sinclair uses the public airways for free and has an obligation to serve the public interest. We object to the media consolidation that allows such tactics.